Practice Reining: Reining only class, no cattle.

Herd Practice: Anyone, including trainers, can enter this class. No reining pattern, just cattle work; each person will get 3 cows to work within 2:30 minutes.

Haul-In fees only needs to be paid for each horse you bring not each class.

The late fee only applies if you unexpectedly join a class on the day of or after the due date of the entry fees. This means the class total plus a late fee of $30.

None of these classes will run concurrently. All classes will run separately. If you enter 3 classes, you will ride 3 times.

One horse can only be shown 3 times total, any more entries for that horse will not count, and you will be asked which class you want to drop. The only exception to this rule is if one of those classes is herd work.

Herd practice is limited and has to have a reservation in order to ride in this class. No late entries will be taken for the herd practice unless someone else does not show up.
